

Tri County Jr.-Sr. High School Bulletin for Wednesday, May 15, 2019

Take care of library books and fines! Summer is coming, and your library books are due. Please return any books you have back to the library by the end of the week. If you have lost a book, it will need to be paid for. If you need a book for class, come talk to Mrs. Wieggers, and something can be arranged.

CHECK-OUT PROCEDURES for STUDENTS A reminder to all students that all fees must be paid, library books returned, chrome book & charger checked in, athletic uniforms/gear turned in, etc. prior to checking out of school. Students who will not be in school on Thursday and/or Friday MUST take care of these things prior to leaving. You can check your fees due on PowerSchool.

FREE CAMP for Tri County students! Some very generous friends are making it possible for YOU to attend Carol Joy Holling Camp in Ashland for FREE! Carol Joy Holling Camp offers summer camping opportunities for 1st – 12th grade students throughout the months of June and July. Come and explore the many trails, hang out with horses at Ranch Camp, go swimming, stretch your comfort zone on one of our challenge courses and connect with others from across Nebraska and the surrounding areas. Check out the camp video at <https://vimeo.com/188032990>. Learn more and register at www.CarolJoyHolling.org. Use the discount code "Tri-County" when registering and the price will be reduced to a $50 deposit that will be refunded after you attend camp. For more information contact Sue Misselt, our Registrar, at smisselt@nlom.org or 402-944-2544.
